

Dear participants and visitors of the 24th International Oil and Gas Exhibition and Conference - OGU 2020!

Due to the continuing tense epidemiological situation in the world associated with the spread of the coronavirus COVID - 19, Iteca Exhibitions has been forced to announce the postponement of the 24th International Oil and Gas Exhibition and Conference - OGU 2020 will now take place from 24th June -26th June 2020.

Iteca Exhibitions, as the organiser of public events, holds a great responsibility and approaches primarily the safety issues of participants and guests. After consideration and consultation with the organizing committee, we decided to postpone in the hope of maximally preserving the companies interested in participating and the International audience of visitors.

We apologise for the inconvenience associated with the postponement of its holding.

We seek understanding of the participants OGU 2020, who planned their participation in the event in May 2020.

We express our sincere sympathy and support to those affected by the outbreak of the coronavirus in China, South Korea, Italy and other countries across the world

We hope for a rapid resolution of the situation and inform you that we have begun preparatory work to hold the International Oil and Gas Exhibition and Conference –
OGU 2020 on a new date: June 24th -26th, 2020.

Yours Sincerely,

Lenny Akunor
